Poison

Shiny Toy Guns

I'm going to meet you
I'm going to meet you
I'm going to meet you
I'm going to meet youI'm going to meet you
I'm going to meet you
I'm going to meet you
I'm going to meet youI'm going to meet you
I'm going to meet you
I'm going to meet you
I'm going to meet you
I'm going to meet youVoices are child in sound fades away
For silence is walking
Signs of you will leave
What will happen and now the same as you
'Til the end of someone's world
And the cradle says goodbye to yesterdayPainfully, I prepare a release
And poison takes me away
Poison takes me away, takes me awayListen, don't cry my child
When you awake
My father's table has set a place for youContact, with fire full love
As you're to know my days
A season of poison will bring the darkness soonPainfully, I prepare a release
And poison takes me away
Poison takes me away
On angel's wings, you learn to fly
On angel's wings, you learn to fly
From this world you left below
I'm going to meet you
I've come to take you home
Mommy, mommy, mommyFrom this world you left below
I'm going to meet you
I've come to take you homeFrom this world you left below
I'm going to meet you
I've come to take you homePainfully, I prepare a release
And poison takes me away
Poison takes me away
On angel's wings, you learn to fly
On angel's wings, you learn to fly
