

Perfect Girls

TLC

Look in the broken mirror
I see the pieces of my face on the floor
What's it gonna take not to feel like this anymore?
Livin' for the outside but you're always lonely
Don't know who you are when the makeup's off... who are you?
Doesn't take much to lose yourself....
Perfect girls ain't real...
They hide who they are inside
Perfect girls ain't real
They live a lie... but...
It's always on your mind
'Cause you're online all the time
Know that perfect girls ain't real
Gotta learn to love yourself
Gotta learn to love yourself
Inside and out
Playin' the perfect role
Cryin' deep inside, hoping nobody knows
Tryin' keep it together
House of cards don't fold
On every diet, I even starve myself
But he's still lookin' at everybody else
Guess it comes down to loving myself
Perfect girls ain't real...
They hide who they are inside
Perfect girls ain't real
They live a lie... but...
It's always on your mind
'Cause you're online all the time
Know that perfect girls ain't real
Gotta learn to love yourself
Gotta learn to love yourself
Inside and out
Alone in the day time
Ragin thoughts going through your mind
Wishin' you had her life
Wishin' you was on the other side
You are beautiful inside
Don't you let 'em still your pride'
You should learn to live your life
For yourself, no one else
Perfect girls ain't real...

They hide who they are inside
Perfect girls ain't real
They live a lie... but...
It's always on your mind
'Cause you're online all the time
Know that perfect girls ain't real
Gotta learn to love yourself
Gotta learn to love yourself
Inside and out
