

Girls

Sing Street

Sometimes i pull myself apart
I shift my shape the way i change my colours
Guess im a human work of art
A never ending video-o-o
Truth gets distorted by the facts
Pieces in danger and the trust gets broken
Love always comes under attack
But at the end of all of this oh-oh-oh
All the complicated boys boys
Know the girls are so complicated
Try to open up your mind let go
Can you feel your heart liberated
By the complicated boys boys boys boys
And the complicated girls girls girls girls
Were all just diamonds in the rough
Im still a stranger in the bathroom mirror
Stare at me long and hard enough
You might see someone that you love oh-oh-oh
All the complicated boys boys
Know the girls are so complicated
Try to open up your mind let go
Can you feel your heart liberated
By the complicated boys boys boys boys
And the complicated girls girls girls girls
By the complicated boys boys boys boys
And the complicated girls girls girls girls
Oh its complicated
