Picture of Me

Lee Brice

I grew up on the edge of a cornfield At the end of a long dirt road Carolina plow boy Ain't had a free summer since I was ten years oldMama made us pick our own switches So we could feel the sting of doin' wrong That set me straight on the road I'm still onI am who I am The product of a good woman loved by a real good man I've learned what I've learned By findin' the right way in all of my wrong turnsI love what I love I ain't afraid to say it 'cause I'm damn sure man enough That's what you need to see to get a picture of me I grew up on gospel 'cause that's all my daddy'd listen to I found my soul in rock and roll When me and my first guitar were introducedTruth is I've only loved one woman And she'd have stayed, but I made her leave She's still hauntin' me in every song I singI am who I am The product of a woman still loved by a stubborn man I've learned what I've learned By findin' the right way in all of my wrong turnsI love what I love I ain't afraid to say it 'cause I'm damn sure man enough That's what you need to see to get a picture of meLike me or leave me Either way you know it the second you shake my hand I'm a long way from Jesus But I know He knows I'm doin' the best I can I am who I am The product of the good Lord lovin' a sinful man I've learned what I've learned By findin' the right way in all of my wrong turnsI love what I love I ain't afraid to say it 'cause I'm damn sure man enough That's what you need to see That's what you need to see to get a picture of me Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
