

Light Today

Eddie Vedder

I saw the light today
I saw the light today
I saw the light today
I saw the light today silence loud and wind so long the quiet building in the dark surrender to the game
I saw the light today the silent scream that we're apart I dare to dream, for there you are I bleed, but I won't break
I saw the light today
I saw the light today
I saw the light today
today
today
