

Somewhere New (feat. M-22) [Radio Edit]

Klingande

Yesterday is not today
I know that I won't get another chance
No looking back
The time has gone
We turned the page
The past is in the past
Why don't we stand up
To a love we know will last
Coz if we don't start now then
We might not get the chance
Hideaway the sun light
Finding you can be my sunshine
Trying to become one
I found it all in you
So just let me know
We can go somewhere new
I don't need the sunlight
We can go somewhere...
Yesterday seems far away
I know that we are never turning back
We chased the days and played away and
Past is in the past
Hideaway the sun light
Finding you can be my sunshine
Trying to become one
I found it all in you
So just let me know
We can go somewhere new
I don't need the sunlight
We can go somewhere...
We can go somewhere new
I don't need the sunlight
We can go somewhere...
Go somewhere new...
We can go somewhere new
We can go somewhere new
