

Motorcycle

Remy Zero

Too much wine has crossed my mind
And closed the gates
Shadows move all across my room
In waves of late.
I almost think this table is alive
Black motorcycles
Nothing could go further in the dark
Circle and cycle
Now it's going to change
You say nothing stays the same
Stay, I'm afraid
I sleep all day
A thousand hours are in your mouth
I dreamed our learning
And now its time to dream our turning out
Black motorcycles
Nothing could go further in the dark
Circle and cycle
Now it's going to change
You say nothing stays the same
Mmmm hmhhh
This is on, it can't be wrong.
Black motorcycles
Nothing could go further in the dark
Goodnight, sweet Michael
And now you're gonna change
You say nothing stays the same.
Free and wild, an amazing child
You'll be my end
