

I'm All Yours (feat. Pitbull)

Jay Sean

I'm all yours tonight
Got a feeling that I can't deny
Everything about you gets me high
Girl I want this for the rest of my life
I'm all yours Success is here, and she don't play
I'm ready for her though, throw her my way
Heart torn, and I doubt you can save it
It's okay, it's been like that since I was a baby
Thoughts deep, scuba, my mind is free
Opposite of Cuba
Take me for my money or my fame
Papa don't try, see right through ya
Four lawsuits, one year, two down, two to go
Fame, expensive year
Good thing I know I was built for the war
I was built to be all yours
Abuelita is a rebel, my mother's fighter
Tia is a G, and my sister's a rider, dale
I'm all yours tonight
Got a feeling that I can't deny
Everything about you gets me high
Girl I want this for the rest of my life And celebrate tonight
And together we gon' touch the sky
Everything about you gets me high
Girl I want this for the rest of my life
I'm all yours Girl I want this for the rest of my life
I'm all yours Say it ain't so
You're reading every thought in my mind
Lady, lady, so damn beautiful
That I could just stare at you all night, all night, yeah
The girls, and the champagne,
The music just don't feel the same, no
Cause lately these bright lights don't shine unless you're here with me, baby
I'm all yours tonight
Got a feeling that I can't deny
Everything about you gets me high
Girl I want this for the rest of my life Girl I want this for the rest of my life
I'm all yours But I'd do it for you girl, I'd rap for you girl
I'd laugh for you girl, I'd cry for you
Die for you girl, the truth is it's all for you girl We gon' fly yeah
And we gon' sore yeah
Tonight it is ours yeah

And I'm all yours yeah
Yeah I'm all yours yeah
Yeah I'm all yours yeah
Yeah I'm all yours yeah
Yeah I'm all yours I'm all yours tonight
Got a feeling that I can't deny
Everything about you gets me high
Girl I want this for the rest of my life
I'm all yours Girl I want this for the rest of my life
I'm all yours
