

No Matter What (feat. Svrčina)

Jordan Critz

It could you wide open
It doesn't take much for a human to break
A world of emotions
And there only so much that your heart can take
I know it's wrong
But it's just what it is
Don't let it stop, your confidence
No I can't watch go down like this, down like this I hope you're not, hope you're not feeling like giving up
If you're weak I'll be strong, be the one to lift you up
Let me hold you
Let me show you how I feel
Just close your eyes, I will fight for you no matter what
Inside of the madness
Just say you'll head down the morning will come
There's beauty from ashes
It's never over till you say it's done
I know it's wrong
But it's just what it is
Don't let it stop, your confidence
No I can't watch go down like this, you go down like this I hope you're not, hope you're not feeling like giving up
If you're weak I'll be strong, be the one to lift you up
Let me hold you
And let me show you how I feel
Just close your eyes, I will fight for you no matter what
(Oh) I can't watch go down like this, you go down like this
I hope you're not, hope you're not feeling like giving up
(Oh) If you're weak I'll be strong, be the one to lift you up
(Oh) And let me hold you
And let me show you how I feel
Just close your eyes, I will fight for you no matter what
(Mmh) Just close your eyes, I will fight for you no matter what
