Piano Man

Billy Joel

It's nine o'clock on a saturday
Regular crowd shuffles in
There's an old man sittin' next to me
Makin' love to his tonic and ginHe says son can you play me a memory?
I'm not really sure how it goes

But it's sad and it's sweet and I knew it complete When I wore a younger man's clothesLa-la-la de-de da La-la de-de da da-daSing us a song you're the piano man

Sing us a song tonight
Well we're all in the mood for a melody
And you've got us feelin' alright

Now John at the bar is a friend of mine He gets me my drinks for free

And he's quick with a joke or to light up your smoke But there's someplace that he'd rather beHe says Bill I believe this is killing me

As a smile ran away from his face
Well I'm sure that I could be a movie star
If I could get out of this placeOh, la-la-la de-de da
La-la de-de da da-daNow Paul is a real estate novelist

Who never had time for a wife

And he's talkin' with Davy who's still in the navy

And probably will be for lifeAnd the waitress is practicing politics

As the businessmen slowly get stoned

Yes they're sharing a drink they call loneliness

But it's better than drinkin' alone... Sing us the song you're the piano man

Sing us a song tonight

Well we're all in the mood for a melody

And you've got us feelin' alrightIt's a pretty good crowd for a saturday

And the manager gives me a smile

'Cause he knows that it's me they've been comin' to see

To forget about life for a while

And the piano it sounds like a carnival

And the microphone smells like a beer

And they sit at the bar and put bread in my jar

And say man what are you doin' here?

Oh, la-la-la de-de da

La-la de-de da da-da

Sing us the song you're the piano man Sing us a song tonight

Well we're all in the mood for a melody
And you've got us feelin' alright
