

Building...

On

I should have known that you would be somebody
Who would take me back to school
Everything I've known is suddenly in question
When I start to share it with you I should have seen that you would be the kind of girl
Who'd make my mind up for me
Everything I've thought is making no sense to me
When I started to see it your way
When I started to see it your way Are you bringing me down
Or are you making me more than I am?
Are you breaking me down
Or are you building me up to your plans?
I can't get along without you
But girl, you make it hard to
Live my life in peace when
I'm so damn busy changing I can't get along without you
But girl you make it hard to
Live my life in peace when
I'm so damn busy changing I should have known that you would be somebody
Who would take me back to school
Everything I've known is suddenly in question
When I start to share it with you I should have seen that you would be the kind of girl
Who'd make my mind up for me
Everything I thought is making no sense to me
When I started to see it your way
When I started to see it your way
Are you bringing me down
Or are you making me more than I am?
Are you breaking me down
Or are you building me up to your plans? I can't get along without you
But girl, you make it hard to
Live my life in peace when
I'm so damn busy changing I can't get along without you
But girl, you make it hard to
Live my life in peace when
I'm so damn busy changing Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
