For a Pessimist, I'm Pretty Optimistic

Paramore

Just talk yourself up And tear yourself down You've hit your one wall Now find a way around Well, what's the problem? You've got a lot of nerveSo what did you think I would say? No, you can't run away No, you can't run away So what did you think I would say? No, you can't run away No, you can't run away You wouldn't I never wanted to say this You never wanted to stay I put my faith in you So much faith And then you just threw it away You threw it awayI'm not so naive My sorry eyes can see The way you fight shy Of almost everything Well, if you give up You'll get what you deserveSo what did you think I would say? No, you can't run away No, you can't run away So what did you think I would say? No, you can't run away No, you can't run away You wouldn't I never wanted to say this You never wanted to stay I put my faith in you So much faith And then you just threw it away You threw it away... You were finished long before We had even seen the start Why don't you stand up? Be a man about it Fight with your bare hands about it, nowI never wanted to say this You never wanted to stay Well, did you?

I put my faith in you So much faith And then you just threw it away I never wanted to say this You never wanted to stay I put my faith in you So much faith And then you just threw it away Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.
