Steel Bars

Jill Phillips

So this is how it feels at the rock bottom of despair

When the house that I built comes crashing down

And this is how it feels when I know the man that I say I am

Is not the man that I am when no one's aroundAn this is how it feels to come alive again

And start fighting back to gain control

And this is how it feels to let freedom in

And break these chains that enslave my soull refuse to be locked up in here like a prison cell

Where all I ever get is a meal and four walls

And I used to be just fine in here but not anymore

Gonna break through these steel bars

So tell me how it feels when the tables start to turn

And you find yourself at the losing end

And tell me how it feels, you're not welcome here

'Cause I'm tired of pain and I'm tired of sinI refuse to be locked up in here like a prison cell

Where all I ever get is a meal and four walls, yeah

I used to be just fine in here but not anymore

Gonna break through these steel barsI won't let you win

I have no doubt

I don't want you in

So get out, get outI refuse to be locked up in here like a prison cell

Where all I ever get is a meal and four walls

And I used to be just fine in here but not anymore

Gonna break through, gonna break through

I refuse to be locked up in here like a prison cell

Where all I ever get is a meal and four walls, yeah

I used to be just fine in here but not anymore

Gonna break through these steel bars

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by http://counterlikes.com/