

New Dark Ages

Bad Religion

Yeah can you hear the call
In our rambling land
Susurrations
That can expand beyond all hope of light and plunge us into unrelenting night
A pall on truth and reason
It feels like hunting season
So avoid those lines of sight and we'll set this right
Welcome to the new dark ages
Yeah I hope you're living right
These are the new dark ages
And the world might end tonight
Now come ye children
One and all
Let's heed Ezekiel's call
And bide until the word is good and ripe and get plucked clean out of sight
The world will be erased
Our kin will be immaculate ejaculate in space
Before the king of king's love
He'll snatch us from above
Brothers help me sing it
Welcome to the new dark ages
Yeah I hope you're living right
These are the new dark ages
And the world might end tonight
So how do you sleep
There's nothing to keep
This is deep
Because we're animals, with golden rules who-
Who can't be moved by rational views
Welcome to the new dark ages
I hope you're living right
Welcome to the new dark ages
Say it again, yeah
These are the new dark ages
I hope you're living right
Welcome to the new dark ages
And the world might end tonight
