Castle on the Hill

Ed Sheeran

When I was six years old, I broke my leg
I was running from my brother and his friends
And tasted the sweet perfume of the mountain grass I rolled down
I was younger then, take me back to when IFound my heart and broke it here
Made friends and lost them through the years
And I've not seen the roaring fields in so long
I know I've grown, but I can't wait to go homeI'm on my way
Driving at 90 down those country lanes
Singing to Tiny Dancer
And I miss the way you make me feel, and it's real
When we watched the sunset over the castle on the hill
Fifteen years old and smoking hand-rolled cigarettes
Running from the law through the backfields and Getting drunk with my friends
Had my first kiss on a Friday night

I don't reckon that I did it right, butI was younger then, take me back to when
We found weekend jobs, when we got paid

We'd buy cheap spirits and drink them straight Me and my friends have not thrown up in so long

Oh, how we've grown, but I can't wait to go homeI'm on my way

Driving at 90 down those country lanes

Singing to Tiny Dancer

And I miss the way you make me feel, and it's real When we watched the sunset over the castle on the hill

Over the castle on the hill

Over the castle on the hill

One friend left to sell clothes

One works down by the coast

One had two kids, but lives alone

One's brother overdosed

One's already on his second wife

One's just barely getting by, but

These people raised me

And I can't wait to go homeAnd I'm on my way

I still remember these old country lanes

When we did not know the answers

And I miss the way you make me feel, and it's real

When we watched the sunset over the castle on the hill

Over the castle on the hill

Over the castle on the hill
