The Killing Lights

AFI

Five AM on the bathroom floor from the night before
Do you find me dreadful?
What a shame, such a sad disgrace, such a pretty face
But she's not regretfulAm I beautiful?
Am I usable?It's killing time again
Put on your face and let's pretend

These killing lights won't kill us all againThree A.M. on the city street, when the air is sweet I've had my mouth full

But it seems that outside the screen such a pretty face

Often will look dreadful

Am I beautiful?

Am I usable?It's killing time again

Put on your face and let's pretend

These killing lights won't kill us all againIt's killing time again

Cover your face and we'll pretend

These killing lights can't kill us all againYou see they always remember

They never forget a faceWhen they cut, cut, cut, cut, cut, cut, cut you up,

Cut, cut, cut, they remember

Cut, cut, cut, cut, cut, cut you up

Cut you up

It's killing time again

Put on your face and let's pretend

These killing lights won't kill us all againIt's killing time again

Cover your face and we'll pretend

These killing lights can't kill us all again
