Thinking About You (feat. Jay Sean)

Hardwell

I wake up smiling every morning
Yeah, I don't mind sleeping alone
People ask me if I don't miss you
But I ain't been thinking aboutAll the nights we've spent together
And how your skin felt on my skin
And I'm just calling to let you know
Uuuh, I ain't been thinking about youBeen thinking about
Been thinking about, thinking about

I ain't been thinking about you
Been thinking about you
Been thinking about, thinking about
I ain't been thinking about you
I go out every single evening
I drink a little bit too much
People ask me if I don't miss you

But I ain't been thinking aboutNights when we went out together

When it was us against the world No, I'm just calling to let you know that

Uuuh, I ain't been thinking about youBeen thinking about you
Been thinking about, thinking about

I ain't been thinking about you Been thinking about you

Been thinking about, thinking about

I ain't been thinking about you I ain't been thinking about you

I ain't been thinking about you

No, I'm just calling to let you know that

Uuuh, I ain't been thinking about youBeen thinking about you Been thinking about, thinking about

I ain't been thinking about you

Been thinking about you

Been thinking about, thinking about

I ain't been thinking about you I ain't been thinking about you Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.
