ARIZONA

Ok, fine maybe I'm just a little nostalgic
'Cause the memories are flooding my mind
Baby I can't stop it I know I said I wouldn't call
But I'm breaking my promise
'Cause the memories are flooding my mind Baby I can't stop it Now I feel weak tonight
'Cause I called myself not being cut off with the times
Strangely you and I, crossed the finish line
But bae hearts moves slow
Get left behind lying next to someone else, uh
But sometimes I still remember what you said and how we fell
Ok, fine maybe I'm just a little nostalgic
'Cause the memories are flooding my mind
Baby I can't stop it
I know I said I wouldn't call
But I'm breaking my promise
'Cause the memories are flooding my mind
Baby I can't stop it
Oh I can't stop it Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, oh oh
Oh I can't stop it
Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, oh oh
It's all locked up inside
There's a giant hole
This stupid quicksand life of mine
And I guess I can't let go
Even though I've tried
But it'll stay here with me till the day I die
Lying next to someone else, uh
But I always remember what you said and how we fell Ok, fine maybe I'm just a little nostalgic
'Cause the memories are flooding my mind
Baby I can't stop it
I know I said I wouldn't call
But I'm breaking my promise
'Cause the memories are flooding my mind
Baby I can't stop it
Oh I can't stop it Oh oh, oh oh
Oh oh, oh oh
Woah oh
I can't stop it
Woah oh
I can't stop it

Woah ohOk, fine maybe I'm just a little nostalgic
'Cause the memories are flooding my mind
Baby I can't stop it
I know I said I wouldn't call
But I'm breaking my promise
'Cause the memories are flooding my mind
Baby I can't stop it
Oh I can't stop it
Oh I can't
