

Walked Away

Masspike Miles

can ya hear my heart? it's crying cause, i feel like my world is falling apart and it's just like you don't care anymore, about us and it's so sudden babyi didn't see it coming ooh, you know it hurt the most when,
when i saw you walk away, i couldn't stop crying when you walked away, i felt like i was dying inside
not again, cause you walked away can you see me waiting, at the edge of the road? hoping somehow you return as though, it was a misunderstanding but i know that it can't be, cause where you're headed i don't knowi didn't see it coming ooh, you know it hurt the most when,
when i saw you walk away, i couldn't stop crying
when you walked away, i felt like i was dying inside
not again, cause you walked awayit's funny how, we walk around thinkin' everything is fine, while living two different lives it cut me like a knife, when i finally realized it's too late when you walked away, i couldn't stop crying when you walked away, i felt like dying inside cause you walked away, i don't know if i will ever live again not again, not again, no, not again
