I Of The Storm (Alex Somers Remix) [Bonus Track]

Of Monsters and Men

If I could face them
If I could make amends
with all my shadows
I'd bow my head and welcome themBut I feel it burning
Like when the winter wind
Stops my breathing

Are you really gonna love me when I'm gone?

I fear you won't

I fear you don't And it echoes when I breathe

Until all you'll see is my ghost

Empty vessel, crooked teeth

Wish you could see

And they call me under

And I'm shaking like a leaf

And they call me under

And I wither underneath

In the stormI am a stranger

I am an alien

inside a structure

Are you really gonna love me when I'm gone?

With all my thoughts

And all my faultsI feel it biting

I feel it break my skin

so uninvited

Are you really gonna need me when I'm gone?

I fear you won't

I feel you don't

And it echoes when I breathe

Until all you'll see is my ghost

Empty vessel, crooked teeth

Wish you could see

And they call me underAnd I'm shaking like a leaf

And they call me under

And I wither underneath

In this storm

I feel itAnd they call me under

And I'm shaking like a leaf

And they call me underneath

To the storm
