

Love

Kylie Minogue

Love is a matter of taste
Don't let it go to waste
Love is whoever you wear
Put it on or lay it bare
Love is wherever you want
Pushing on the brightest star
Love is the perfect song
Dance to it all night long
Whatever you feel, it will always be real in love
Whatever you do, it will always be true in love
Whatever you need, it will be always be free in Love is a pair of heels
Click click and you're on the ceilin'
You're dreamin', believin'
That everything's so revealin'
Love is having nothing to hide
Taking a walk on the wild side
Love is a disco ball
Shining on us all
Whatever you feel, it will always be real in love
Whatever you do, it will always be true in love
Whatever you need, it will be always be free in
Love
Love
Love
Love
Whatever you need, it will be always be free in
Love is a day in bed
Lying in your lover's t-shirt
Lying in your lover's t-shirt
In love
Whatever you feel, it will always be real in love
Whatever you do, it will always be true in love
Whatever you need, it will be always be free in
Love
Love
Love
Love
Whatever you need, it will be always be free in love
