

Habits (feat. Mads Langer)

Maria Mena & Mads Langer

I am a creature of habit
And I move in circles around you
I will admit there's a pattern
One I created myself None of my lovers dared leave me
I grew impatient and stale
Didn't look back once I'd left them
Cause I always expected to fail But this time it's different
The rules don't apply
But I need some distance to step out of line
So grant me this wish and meet me back here in a year
If we still exist, I can let go of my fear
Fear of normalcy
Fear of the solid walls of our future and let go of my past I must be crazy to want this Cause you are the girl of my dreams
But I'm prone to ruin the good things
Cautious 'round balance it seems But with you it's different
The rules don't apply
But I need some distance to step out of line So grant me this wish and meet me back here in a year
If we still exist, I can let go of my fear
Fear of normalcy
Fear of the solid walls of our future and let go of my past
So grant me this wish and meet me back here in a year
If we still exist, I can let go of my fear
Fear of normalcy
Fear of the solid walls of our future and let go of my past
