

New Dominions

Johnny Marr

If I could do anything
I'd burn up faster
A fast track through to a new dominion
Don't go to no paradise after I don't know why
It's understood
Fear and hate turn to lust
Only lovers left alive If I could choose anything
I'd cascade faster
Take the fast line to a real truth
I won't go to no darkness after
I don't know why
It's understood
Fear and hate turns to gods
Only lovers left alive I don't know why
It's understood
Fear and hate turns to lust
Only lovers left to die
We leave the best
Take it, take it!
The new dominion
Yes!
We leave the best
