

Nobody Like You

Little Mix

I'm alive, and living's just a beating heart
'Cause we won't admit we've taken it too far
I know it's love cause I will always be the first
To start making up excuses when it hurts But I'm alone, I'm alone, I'm alone again
And all I want, all I want is to feel again There's nobody like you (nobody like you)
Nobody like you (nobody like you)
I've tried goodbye a hundred times, not one of them true
Nobody like you (nobody like you)
Nobody like you (nobody like you)
I'm screaming "I don't want you" but you know that I do
Nobody like you
Strong, a side of me you never found
'Cause you only see me when my guard is down
And it's wrong, and I hate that it's the truth
But I only like myself when I'm with you But I'm alone, I'm alone, I'm alone again
And all I want, all I want is to feel again There's nobody like you (nobody like you)
Nobody like you (nobody like you)
I've tried goodbye a hundred times, not one of them true
Nobody like you (nobody like you)
Nobody like you (nobody like you)
I'm screaming "I don't want you" but you know that I do Oh, I wanna feel you in the dark
I could use, I could use some
But all you left me with was scars
And that's the hardest part
There's nobody like you
Nobody like you
I've tried goodbye a hundred times, not one of them true
There's nobody like you Nobody like you
Nobody like you
Nobody like you
I've tried goodbye a hundred times, not one of them true
Nobody like you
Nobody like you
Nobody like you
Nobody like you
I'm screaming "I don't want you" but you know that I do
Nobody like Nobody like
Nobody like you
Nobody like
Nobody like
Nobody like you
Nobody like

Yeah
Nobody like you
Nobody like
Nobody like you
