Nobody Like You

Little Mix

I'm alive, and living's just a beating heart 'Cause we won't admit we've taken it too far I know it's love cause I will always be the first To start making up excuses when it hurtsBut I'm alone, I'm alone, I'm alone again And all I want, all I want is to feel againThere's nobody like you (nobody like you) Nobody like you (nobody like you) I've tried goodbye a hundred times, not one of them true Nobody like you (nobody like you) Nobody like you (nobody like you) I'm screaming "I don't want you" but you know that I do Nobody like you Strong, a side of me you never found 'Cause you only see me when my guard is down And it's wrong, and I hate that it's the truth But I only like myself when I'm with youBut I'm alone, I'm alone, I'm alone again And all I want, all I want is to feel againThere's nobody like you (nobody like you) Nobody like you (nobody like you) I've tried goodbye a hundred times, not one of them true Nobody like you (nobody like you) Nobody like you (nobody like you) I'm screaming "I don't want you" but you know that I doOh, I wanna feel you in the dark I could use, I could use some But all you left me with was scars And that's the hardest part There's nobody like you Nobody like you I've tried goodbye a hundred times, not one of them true There's nobody like youNobody like you Nobody like you Nobody like you I've tried goodbye a hundred times, not one of them true Nobody like you Nobody like you Nobody like you Nobody like you I'm screaming "I don't want you" but you know that I do Nobody likeNobody like Nobody like you Nobody like Nobody like Nobody like you Nobody like
