Nobody Like You

Little Mix

I'm alive, and living's just a beating heart

'Cause we won't admit we've taken it too far

I know it's love cause I will always be the first

To start making up excuses when it hurtsBut I'm alone, I'm alone, I'm alone again And all I want, all I want is to feel againThere's nobody like you (nobody like you)

Nobody like you (nobody like you)

I've tried goodbye a hundred times, not one of them true

Nobody like you (nobody like you)

Nobody like you (nobody like you)

I'm screaming "I don't want you" but you know that I do

Nobody like you

Strong, a side of me you never found

'Cause you only see me when my guard is down

And it's wrong, and I hate that it's the truth

But I only like myself when I'm with youBut I'm alone, I'm alone, I'm alone again And all I want, all I want is to feel againThere's nobody like you (nobody like you)

Nobody like you (nobody like you)

I've tried goodbye a hundred times, not one of them true

Nobody like you (nobody like you)

Nobody like you (nobody like you)

I'm screaming "I don't want you" but you know that I doOh, I wanna feel you in the dark

I could use, I could use some

But all you left me with was scars

And that's the hardest part

There's nobody like you

Nobody like you

I've tried goodbye a hundred times, not one of them true

There's nobody like youNobody like you

Nobody like you

Nobody like you

I've tried goodbye a hundred times, not one of them true

Nobody like you

Nobody like you

Nobody like you

Nobody like you

I'm screaming "I don't want you" but you know that I do

Nobody like Nobody like

Nobody like you

Nobody like

Nobody like

Nobody like you
