

Happy

Marina and The Diamonds

Couldn't relax, couldn't sit back, and let the sun light in my lap.
I sang a hymn to bring me peace, and then it came, a melodyIt felt so sweet, it felt so strong,
It made me feel like I belonged, and all the sadness inside me melted away like I was freeI've found what I've been looking for in myself,
Found a life worth living for someone else,
Never thought that I could be, I could be happy, happy.
Don't go out much at all,
I've never been the type to call,
I realise to be happy maybe I need a little companySo now you know, you know it all,
That I've been des-desperately alone,
I haven't found the one for me
But I believe in divinityI've found what I've been looking for in myself,
Found a life worth living for someone else,
Never thought that I could be, I could be happy, happyI believe (I believe) in possibility,
I believe (I believe) someone's watching over me,
And finally (finally) I have found a way to be happy, happy
From the concrete to the coast,
I was looking for a holy ghost,
Like the land joining the sea,
Happiness it followed meI believe (I believe) in possibility,
I believe (I believe) someone's watching over me,
And finally (finally) I have found a way to be happy, happy, happy.
