

Human Nature

Harem Scarem

Souls have lost their way
Looking to hide a dark side
Every time we look inside
The lines are drawn in vein
In your mind
It's alright
We're all the same
Everyday day we're Trying to outrun
The demon's we've become
It's something that we'll never change
It's only human nature that could tear us apart
it's only human nature
to write the ending before the start
Here in the hands of fate
Without a rhyme or reason
We see the signs
We decide to look the other way
And live in a lie
It's alright we're all the same
Everyday we're
Everyday we're trying to fight
Who we are
But in the end it doesn't matter at al
