

Moshpit (feat. Ookay)

Attila

Take it from the best, everything I do pops.
Fake ass bitches all around me, just stop.
I could call you out, but your shit already fops.
I don't give a fuck, I'm already at the top. Take another minute and relive it, Can't you see it, bitch, you're better than you ever really thought.
Better at the game and I was born and raised inside it, you can find me in the motherfucking pit.
If you wanna bet that you're playing with a god and I hope you've prepared your case.
I don't fuck around when it comes to the music, you can never really touch my pace. You come unto me just to question my roots,
But you could never walk a day in my shoes.
Been in the game for twelve years, what it do?
Fuck this shit you can find me in the mosh pit!
You come unto me just to question my roots,
But you could never walk a day in my shoes.
Been in the game for twelve years, what it do?
Fuck this shit you can find me in the mosh pit! Are you ready, motherfuckers? Let's go! Take another minute to relive it, And admit it that your boy's going at it at a supersonic pace.
I can take shotgun into a pub, light it up, take a grape, and then I throw it in your face.
Pussy red motherfuckers doing what they're doing, all I do is hit them with the fucking truth.
I'm a fucking stunner, I'm a grade A runner, and I pave my way in the mosh pit. You come unto me just to question my roots,
But you could never walk a day in my shoes.
Been in the game for twelve years, what it do?
Fuck this shit, you can find me in the mosh pit! Start a fucking mosh pit! You come unto me just to question my roots,
But you could never walk a day in my shoes.
Been in the game for twelve years, what it do?
Fuck this shit, you can find me in the mosh pit!
Fake ass posers all around me, they don't know shit.
Back off bitch, I'm the king of the mosh pit.
Said you love the music, but you never show your face, bitch.
Fuck this shit you, can find me in the mosh pit!
