

1000 Faces (with Dia Frampton)

Jason Ross & Dia Frampton

I'm chasing after a feeling
Deep through the house of my bones
I see a sky with no ceiling Inside of me, extreme vertigo I found you in my shadow
Beside you a thousand faces I don't know
So what am I missing, half of me is living
I found you, in my shadow In my shadow
Now I let go
Turned inside out for the answers
Can't stand the long nights alone
Under my skin, I have captured
All the secrets that overflow I found you, in my shadow
Beside you, a thousand faces I don't know
So what am I missing, half of me is living
I found you, in my shadow
In my shadow
Now I let go
In my shadow
Now I let go
