

A Prairie Tale

King Creosote

Dreaming without sleeping
Morning? Are you leaving?
But our story, it has only begun,
and now you're willing it to end
You promised me a feeling
Something to believe in
You promised me a feeling
And I promise to believe

[Bridge]

But our story, it has only begun,
and now you're willing it to end.

[X2]

You promised me a feeling
Something to believe in
You promised me a feeling
And I promise to believe
