

Silver Moonlight

Within Temptation

Turn around, open your eyes
Can't move on, the fear is tying me down
Oh! Open your eyes
It's alright
Ho!
Wooooo

I'm hellbound in this life
Keep fighting this endless war
It's always been like this I don't know why
Enslavement on your mind
Your fear, it ties me down
Going down
I won't bow, no!
Screaming at the walls of fire
They're closing in on me (Closing in on me)
I'm haunted for the for the vertical of silver moonlight
It's where I wanna be (It's where I wanna be)
Screaming at the walls of fire
But I'm still running free (I'm still running free)
In the silver moonlight
I can breathe
Wooooo
(I can breathe)

Wooooo
These days are lonely now
Breathing in the coldest lies
I think that's only what you have in mind
Holding on to the best of you
I hit the pavement
Going down, I won't bow, don't!
Screaming at the walls of fire
They're closing in on me (Closing in on me)
I'm haunted for the for the vertical of silver moonlight
It's where I wanna be (It's where I wanna be)
Screaming at the walls of fire
But I'm still running free (I'm still running free)
In the silver moonlight
I can breathe
I've been patient
But it's colors that I need
Too many shades of gray
I cannot breath (I can't breathe)
The dreams I haven't tainted
I need you to believe
The only way to make them real
Oh!(I can breathe)
Screaming at the walls of fire
They're closing in on me (Closing in on me)
I'm haunted for the for the vertical of silver moonlight

It's where I wanna be (It's where I wanna be) Screaming at the walls of fire
But I'm still running free (I'm still running free)
In the silver moonlight
I can breathe
(I can breathe) Wooooo Turn around, open your eyes
Can't move on, the fear is tying me down
Oh! Open your eyes
It's alright
