

I'm Not Missing You

Stacie Orrico

Oh, oh, I'm not missing you
Been through just about everything that I could go through
When it comes to relationships
Don't know what I was missing or why I ain't listen?
When I told myself that was it
Now here I go, hurt again 'Cause of my curiosity Now that it's over, what else could it be decisive it is
I made a promise never to settle, why didn't I keep it?
'Cause I hated the heartbreak
Crying and cheating, the fooling around
But I'm not missing you
I'm not going through the motions, waiting and hoping you call me
I'm not missing you
You might have had me open but I must be going because
I got life to do
I know I'm usually hanging on, I used to hate to see you gone
But this time it's different, I don't even feel the distance
I'm not missing, I'm not missing you
It's a shame in a way 'cause I feel that I may not Ever find the right one for me
Did I leave him, is he right in front of my face oh?
Will my true love ever be?
Why would I go on a search again?
When I know what the end will be What good is love when it keeps on hurting me?
I made a promise never to settle, why didn't I keep it?
'Cause I hated the heartbreak
Crying and cheating, the fooling around (But I'm not missing you)
I'm not going through the motions, waiting and hoping you call me
I'm not missing you
You might have had me open but I must be going because
I got life to do
I know I'm usually hanging on, I used to hate to see you gone
But this time it's different, I don't even feel the distance
I'm not missing, I'm not missing you
No, I can't be with you 'cause I'm scared felt like I was falling when you left me
I can't keep going through life unaware of what I missed and the person I could be Love's good when it's right and when it's left in your memory
All the times I let you down
I guess love will be nice for someone else's life (But I'm not missing you)
I'm not going through the motions, waiting and hoping you call me
Oh, I'm not missing you
You might have had me open but I must be going because
I got life to do
I know I'm usually hanging on, I used to hate to see you gone (I used to hate it)
Oh feel the distance, I'm not missing, I'm not missing you

I'm not going through the motions, waiting and hoping you call me (Knockin' at my door)
You might have had me open but I must be going because (It's the best day of my life)
I know I'm usually hanging on, I used to hate to see you gone
Oh different, feel the distance, I'm not missing, I'm not missing you Ohhh... yeahhh... ahhh...
I'm not missing you, oh baby
I'm not missing you
