Friend of Mine (feat. Vargas & Lagola)

Avicii

Hey, do you remember we said "Hello" And you asked me about my Levi's t-shirt Said "You are a friend of mine" My oh my

You must have saved me 'bout a thousand times

I wouldn't be the one I am today

If you hadn't been a friend of mineI ain't misbehaving, I'm just telling you the truth

Take my love for granted

Yeah, I'd give it all to you

Make me count for something

Yeah, I feel it in my heart

God only knows what I'd have been

If you hadn't been a friend of mine

Hey! I haven't seen around since high school

How you doing, do you still remember me?

Are you still a friend of mine?

Guess you're still a friend of mine

Guess you're still a friend of mine

Now I see why I get nervous when you look at me

It's like your eyes are trying to tell me something

That you're more than just a friend of mine

That you're more than just a friend of mine, oh my

I ain't misbehaving, I'm just telling you the truth

Take my love for granted

Yeah, I'd give it all to you

Make me count for something

Yeah, I feel it in my heart

God only knows what I'd have been

If you hadn't been a friend of mine
