

Kimiko's Dream House

Mark Lanegan

It's a matter of time, we always get lost
By going very far, it's a matter of time Like I told you before, things are alright
If I fall to the floor, it's for closing my eyes I came to this place, so tired at first
Kimiko's dream house
So many things, that girls know before
Kimiko's dream house
There's so many things, that I've known before
To make matters worse, the trains are on time
Lost at the station, still lost in our minds Thrown the rivers, we kicked and cursed
Kimiko's dream house
So many things, that girls know before
Kimiko's dream house
So many things, that I've know before
It's swallowing us, but dream we must
Kimiko's dream house
So many things, that girls know before
Kimiko's dream house
So many things, that I've known before I
And all the girls have known before
