Kimiko's Dream House

Mark Lanegan

It's a matter of time, we always get lost
By going very far, it's a matter of timeLike I told you before, things are alright
If I fall to the floor, it's for closing my eyesI came to this place, so tired at first
Kimiko's dream house

So many things, that girls know before Kimiko's dream house

There's so many things, that I've known before

To make matters worse, the trains are on time

Lost at the station, still lost in our mindsThrown the rivers, we kicked and cursed

Kimiko's dream house

So many things, that girls know before

Kimiko's dream house

So many things, that I've know before

It's swallowing us, but dream we must

Kimiko's dream house

So many things, that girls know before

Kimiko's dream house

So many things, that I've known beforeI And all the girls have known before
