

Wait

NF

Wait, Wait, Wait, Don't leave me
Where you going? Where you going? Where you going? Where you going?
Why you leaving? Why you leaving?
Wait
I can't lose you, I can't lose you
I can't lose you
God, I need you, God I need you... Wait
And don't you love me? Don't you love me?
Don't you love me,
Guess you don't want me
You don't want me
Wait
We back and forth Yeah this ain't working, this ain't working
Love ain't perfect, Love ain't perfect
I'm holding onto pieces of us
That I just can't let go
I know this is a desperate kind of love
But it feels like it's home
Where you going?
I'm holding onto pieces of us
Cause I just can't let go
Wait, Wait, Wait Don't leave me
What you thinking? What you thinking?
What you thinking? What you thinking?
Where's your mind at?
Wait
Don't you miss us, don't you miss us?
Don't you miss us?
Cause you don't call that
You don't call that
Wait
Are you happy?
Tell me, are you happy?
Are you smiling? Are you smiling? Wait
Girl, what happened?
Tell me, girl, what happened?
Cause I am dying
I am dying
I'm holding onto pieces of us
That I just can't let go
I know this is a desperate kind of love
But it feels like it's Home

Where you going? Where you going I'm holding onto pieces of us
Cause I just can't let go
Wait
We don't wanna have a conversation
We don't wanna think about it
We wanna just fake it
We just wanna act like everything is great
Go back to the day
With yo movies in the basement
And the problem is now I feel like everything is changing
And I'm trying to make a living
On the music
But I'm feeling every time I look at you
I'm in a place that
It's hard to be the man of the house When you ain't gotta house. I hate this
Yeah, It's complicated, It's complicated
It's complicated
We don't wanna talk
We don't wanna talk
It's complicated
I'm sitting in the hotel room like 'why'? Call yo phone and apologize
Gotta be a way we can make this right
We can make this right
I'm holding on to pieces of us That I just can't let go
I know this is a desperate kind of love
I know this is, I know this is
But it feels like it's home
Where you going? Oh, where you going?
Where you going?
I'm holding onto pieces of us
I'm holding on, I'm holding on
Cause I just can't let go
I'm holding onto pieces of us,
That I just can't let go
I know this is a desperate kind of love,
But it feels like it's home.
Wait, Wait, Wait, Don't leave me
Wait, Wait, Don't leave me.
