

Struggle

NEFFEX

Oh, growing up ain't easy
Too many things to do weekly
Too many thoughts to think deeply
Too many thoughts to be sleeping, yeah
Oh my god, I'm not eating
I feel so empty, I'm receding
And all of my friends are misleading
All of these posts and the laughs I'm leading, yeah Oh, no way
I ain't gon' stand for this today
I'ma keep my head down, I'm okay
I don't wanna listen to a word they say
Uh, and we all know fear is a slogan, yeah
And we all feel broken, yeah
And we all are spoken
Need someone who could just so show them
Sometimes I struggle in this place
Been in circles several days
Never knowing the right way
Hmm, yeah
Sometimes I struggle in this place
People look the other way
And we all deal with our pain
Oh, yeah No, I'm not down, no, I'm not out
If I got a voice they gon' hear me shout
I can make my own choice and we've all got a mouth
I'ma make noise, yeah, that I don't doubt
I don't feel a failure, not yet
Mistakes, they make ya better, don't regret
And like Drake's head, man, I'm upset
Too many people out here wasting their breath, yeah, yeah
And still I feel like we've just all been going crazy
Too many people need to find themselves some safety
Just take control of your life, it's all day to day, yeah
Don't need nobody else, myself can always safe me Sometimes I struggle in this place
Been in circles several days
Never knowing the right way
Hmm, yeah
Sometimes I struggle in this place
People look the other way
And we all deal with our pain
Oh, yeah
Sometimes I struggle in this place

Been in circles several days
Never knowing the right way
 Hmm, yeah
Sometimes I struggle in this place
 People look the other way
And we all deal with our pain
 Oh, yeah...
