

Shadows (feat. Bipolar Sunshine)

Tinie Tempah

You are more than able, of cutting through the cable
But I see your angel, don't act young and wasteful
Come to garden and let your guard down
Come to your senses it will all be clear Yeah, yeah (ah)
I tell stunners I'm stone cold and Austin Powers
Too busy working, all my niggas talking about power
I made vow that I won't end up like Kenny Powers
When the money goes and friendships turn sour
Still rapping with soul cause I never sold mine
For the whole time did it without a co-sign
They can't approach their shit the way I approach mine
Dumi knew that he stumbled on a goldmine
They think you buss and it's all roses and daffodils
I coulda moved off ends, but I'm in Hackney still
I could of S-curl'd my hair, my hair is nappy still
I showed you the most how to make the most out of crappy deal
Opened doors everybody getting signed now
I having mean with Greatest of all times now
I never do it off of the top, I gotta write it down
Ask the hackers all bars up on my iCloud
Still fresher than Brok' Beckham and Ash Catchem
Took my beanie back to Plumstead and then back to Peckham
Today's beef then tomorrow your friends
Rappers unfollow you, then follow you and then unfollow you again
I tell him a man his face I got a problem with him, straight
I can take your girl in woven sandals and turn her to Naomi Campbell
Horror stories I'm so weary of divorce
I might move to North Korea because my career is heading north
You ain't see us in the wagon then I swear it was the Porsche
Take my niggas to LA where this ain't against the law
I ain't scared of no lawsuit, word to my tailor
I didn't even ask Calvin when he took us out to Vegas
They wanna see us down, they don't want see us up
And when Harry cuts his hair whole worlds going nuts
You are more than able, of cutting through that cable
But I see your angel, don't sound and wasteful
Come to garden and let your guard down
Come to senses it will all be clear
I just wanna be the light you wanna see
The star in your eyes, the glimmer in the shadow
I just wanna be the light you wanna see
The star in your eyes, the glimmer in the shadow

Let me roll with you and [?]
Let me roll with you, all your pieces in your grand design
