

Skin

Collective Soul

I'm starting to feel loopy, your dizziness consumes me
And Jesus don't speak English but I do think I understand
The rhyme and the reason of a goody good gentleman
If I were one I swear I'd still be tasting your skin
The sky tonight is gracious to rain on me your sweetness

Jesus don't speak English but I do think I understand
The rhyme and the reason of a goody good gentleman
If I were one I swear I'd still be tasting your skin
I scream an explanation, your world is so contagious

Jesus don't speak English but I do think I understand
The rhyme and the reason of a goody good gentleman
If I were one I swear I'd still be tasting your skin, skin, skin
