Goddess

Iggy Azalea

Make enough in ten months

I could live off of or retire

But I just won't quit

Tryna figure out which part of this you just don't get huhLord, lemme know if you got this

Preaching about prophets

It ain't no one man can stop us

Bow down to a Goddess, bow down to a Goddess, bow down to a Goddess

It ain't no one man can stop us

Bow down to a Goddess

Goddess! Got it?

Same critics wondered if I had it in me

Now want me to play friendly

But how the hell you play friendly when the mention of my name could cause a media frenzy

The cameras flash everywhere, make it hard to miss me

Lately I been crazy til a psych will commit me

After any competition coming up against me

You think it's anything better, then come convince meTil then I'll be leading the race

So bow down, put your knee to your face

While I make wine outta water, turn rappers into martyrs

Set it off whenever I-G-G in the place, huh

Young rapper, Goddess

Y'all are boring, read like Rapper's Digest

I could never see you fall like I skip through August

I'm thinkin bout now would be the time to start this

Lord, lemme know if you got this

Preaching about prophets

It ain't no one man can stop us

Bow down to a Goddess, bow down to a Goddess, bow down to a Goddess

It ain't no one man can stop us

Bow down to a Goddess

Goddess! Got it?Put your hands to the sky

But only if you feel the vibe

They wanna bury me alive but ya'll know real goddess never diePut your hands to the sky

But only if you feel the vibe

They wanna bury me alive but ya'll know real goddess never dieLord, lemme know if you got this

Preaching about prophets

It ain't no one man can stop us

Bow down to a Goddess, bow down to a Goddess, bow down to a Goddess

It ain't no one man can stop us

Bow down to a Goddess

Goddess! Got it?Bow down

Bow down
Bow down
Bow down
Bow down
Bow down
Bow down
Bow down
