

Harakiri

Serj Tankian

We're the day birds
Deciding to fly against the sky
Within our dreams, we all wake up
To kiss the ones who are born to die We're the graying herds
Hurting each other with our lies
Within our dreams, we all wake up
To kiss the ones who are born, born to die
Born to die The drum fish
They beached themselves in Harakiri
The blackbirds
They fell in thousands from the sky
The red wings
Streaming down from the higher seas
Deflected by the ground
They crowned the sun They crowned the sun
(They crowned the sun)
They crowned the sun
(They crowned the sun)
But I believe that they are free When their time was done
(Their time was done)
They were drowned by the only one
(They crowned the sun)
But I believe that they are free
Washed by the sun
Our statues, the soaring edifice of our times
Detracted from the ways of the wise
The future will view all history as a crime
So father, tell us when is the time to rise They crowned the sun
(They crowned the sun)
They crowned the sun
(They crowned the sun)
But I believe that they are free When their time was done
(Their time was done)
They were drowned by the only one
(They crowned the sun)
But I believe that they are free We're the day birds
Deciding to fly against the sky
Within our dreams, we all wake up
To kiss the ones who are born to die We're the graying herds
Hurting each other with our lies
Within our dreams, we all wake up
To kiss the ones who are born, born to die They crowned the sun

(They crowned the sun)
They crowned the sun
(They crowned the sun)
But I believe that they are free When their time was done
(Their time was done)
They were drowned by the only one
(They crowned the sun)
But I believe that they are free They crowned the sun
(They crowned the sun)
They crowned the sun
(They crowned the sun)
But I believe that they are free And we believe that they are free
'Cause I believe that they are me
Washed by the sun
