

Here

Pharrell Williams

My dear it seems we're here again
So much for effort
Isn't it clear we're here again
Our thing right where we left it A delusion is a flight first class to nowhere
While a dream is a blueprint
A plane to go there
To go there And I
I promise on all existence
If it breathes then it is our witness
We have unfinished business
You and I
And so my
Word is I'll cross those bridges
With zero regard for limits
And distance, you and I My dear it seems we're here again
Was there a glitch in my method
Isn't it clear we're here again
Let's get new GPS So next time you see this place
Remember we were alone
We'll bring our children from home
That's right, oh yeah
I'm gonna go there And I
I promise on all existence
If it breathes then it is our witness
We have unfinished business
You and I
And so my
Word is I'll cross those bridges
With zero regard for limits
And distance, you and I Well, anyone think they can do it better
Well come on
Come one
But back to you
Hold on girl we can make it
Stack whatever on top I can take it It seems we're here again
This is the right trajectory And I
I promise on all existence
If it breathes then it is our witness
We have unfinished business
You and I And so my
Word is I'll cross those bridges
With zero regard for limits

And distance, you and I
