

Fallen

Delerium

Do you remember me?
I'm just a shadow now
This is where I used to be
Right here beside you Sometimes I call your name
High on a summer breeze
What I would give to feel the sunlight on my face
What I would give to be lost in your embrace I've fallen from a distant star
Come back, compelled because of love
I'm caught between two different worlds
I long for one more night on earth
Do you believe in dreams?
That's how I found you
But I can't be revealed
'Til you take a leap of faith What I would give to feel the sunlight on my face
What I would give to be lost in your embrace I've fallen from a distant star
Come back, compelled because of love
I'm caught between two different worlds
I long for one more night on earth I've fallen from a distant star
Come back, compelled because of love
I'm caught between two different worlds
I long for one more night on earth
I've fallen from a distant star
Come back, compelled because of love
I'm caught between two different worlds
I long for one more night on earth
