

She's Gotta Be

Keith Urban

So much for never makin' the same mistake
I can't believe I'm here again
So much for ever thinkin' that I could change
My good intentions still remain in chains. Chorus:
She's gotta be over me now
Probably moved on with her life
Found someone she knows she can believe
God I would give anything if I could just go back again
And be the man she needed me to be. I thought I was a hero
I played him well
He saves the day but not himself
I acted out the lover
My finest part
Had all the lines but not the heart
Now look where we are.

Chorus:

She's gotta be over me now
Probably moved on with her life
Found someone she knows she can believe
God I would give anything if I could just go back again
And be the man she needed me to be. Be the man she could trust,
Who put her first
Who tamed his demons,
Who healed her hurts
In health and sickness,
Who helped her grow
With no resentment,
True repentance,
God as my witness.

Chorus:

She's gotta be over me now
Probably moved on with her life
Found someone she knows she can believe
God I would give anything if I could just go back again
And be the man she needed me to be. Chorus:
She's gotta be over me now
Probably moved on with her life
Found someone she knows she can believe
God I would give anything if I could just go back again
And be the man she needed me to be. She needed me to be
She needed me to be, oh
Whoa, hallelujah

Yeah, I could be that man she needed me.

She needed me to be...
