Rainbow

Jessie J

> Rainbow We're the colours of the rainbow (oh) Rainbow Jessie JHe grew up in the city Had a lot of money Sponging off his daddy all the time He lives in a bubble Never had to struggle He's far from the benefit line But he feels blue sometimes And he blood bleeds red like mine The grass is greener on the other side What I'm saying is we're all alike We're the colours of the rainbow (yeah, yeah) Let's share our pot of gold We're the colours of the rainbow (yeah, yeah) We're the colours of the rainbow (yeah, yeah)RainbowThere's mummy in the ghetto Gotta work it double There's enough for me, menough for you, you, you Just to pay the bills and get by But more power to ya You're doing what you do-a Everybody's on the yellow brick roadTher' Were

We're the colours of the rainbow (yeah, yeah)
Everybody's on the yellow brick roadThere's enough for you, you, you
There's enough for me, me, me
We're the colours of the rainbow (yeah, yeah)
We're the colours of the rainbow (yeah, yeah)
We're the colours of the rainbow

Lyrics provided by http://counterlikes.com/

