

While U Here

Young Dolph

Drumma Boy

What's goin' on in real life though?

When you get off that microphone

You know what I mean?

Yeah, I'm talkin' 'bout for real life though Grandma called and told me that she need a new car

Said she heard that her grandson is a superstar

Mama said don't worry, she sick but she good though

Mama and daddy in the suburbs but they hood though, yeah

My lil brother locked up just for tryna get some paper

But I can't blame him 'cause his big brother a paper chaser

Keep some money on his books, man that young nigga straight

He said he don't want no visits, that young nigga eight

My best friend's mama gettin' sicker by the day

Cancer took over her body, got her all in pain

My homie goin' through it, I see it all in his face

Now everybody bow your head, it's time to pray

Tell your mama you love her while she here (for real)

Tell your pops that you love him while he here (for real)

Tell your homeboy you love him while he here (for real)

One day you here, next day you gone, for real (ayy, ayy ayy!)

It's that time of the year

It's a lot of shit goin' on 'round here

Tell your bitch that you love her while you here

If it wasn't for her, would your kids be here? Sometimes I just sit back and think

Do I think too hard or do I think enough?

Everything that I do I got a son watching now

I got nephews and lil cousins that look up to me

Yeah I made it up out them streets nigga, luckily

Only if you knew what I been through

Mama stressin' out 'cause the rent due

Went to grandma grave and told her I miss you

It's hard to stay focused out here livin' in hell

The only way to get ahead is if you catchin' sales

You got niggas out here every day catching shells

It's real life shit right here, no fairy tales

Tell your mama you love her while she here (for real)

Tell your pops that you love him while he here (for real)

Tell your homeboy you love him while he here (for real)

One day you here, next day you gone, for real (ayy, ayy ayy!)

It's that time of the year

It's a lot of shit goin' on 'round here

Tell your bitch that you love her while you here

If it wasn't for her, would your kids be here?
