Always a Friend

Alejandro Escovedo

Wasn't I always a friend to you? Wasn't I always a friend to you? Do you wanna be my friend? Do you wanna be my friend?Every once in a while honey let your love show Every once in a while honey let yourself go Nobody gets hurt no, nah Nobody gets hurtWe came here as two, we laid down as one I don't care if I'm not your only one What I see in you, you see in me But if I do you wrong smoke my smoke, drink my wine Bury my snake skin boots somewhere I'll never find Still be your lover baby, oh oh, oh oh, oh ohWasn't I always a friend to you? Wasn't I always a friend to you? Do you wanna be my friend? Do you wanna be my friend?Every once in a while honey let yourself go Every once in a while honey let your love show Nobody gets hurt no, no Nobody gets hurtWell, I could be an astronaut on the wrong side of the moon Or wrapped up like a baby on a bus under you Wherever I go you go with meBut if I do you wrong, take the master suite, I'll take the floor Sleep in late, get your rest, I'll catch up on mine Still be your lover, baby, oh oh, oh oh, oh oh Wasn't I always a friend to you? Wasn't I always a friend to you? Every once in a while honey let your love show Every once in a while honey let yourself go, yeah Nobody gets hurt, it's only love, love, love Oh oh, oh oh, oh oh
