

Fade

Staind

I try to breathe
Memories overtaking me
I try to face them but
The thought is too much to conceive I only know that I can change
Everything else just stays the same
So now I step out of the darkness that my life became 'cause I just needed someone to talk to
You were just too busy with yourself
You were never there for me
To express how I felt
I just stuffed it down
Now I'm older and I feel like
I could let some of this anger fade
But it seems the surface I am scratching
Is the bed that I have made
So where were you?
When all this I was going through
You never took the time
To ask me just what you could do I only know that I can change
Everything else just stays the same
So now I step out of the darkness
that my life became 'cause I just needed someone to talk to
You were just too busy with yourself
You were never there for me
To express how I felt
I just stuffed it down
Now I'm older and I feel like
I could let some of this anger fade
But it seems the surface I am scratching
Is the bed that I have made
I never meant to fade...
Away I NEVER MEANT TO FADE I just needed someone to talk to
You were just too busy with yourself
You were never there for me
To express how I felt
I just stuffed it down
Now I'm older and I feel like
I could let some of this anger fade
But it seems the surface I am scratching
Is the bed that I have made I try to breathe...
