

LIMBO (feat. Killstation)

XXXTENTACION

[Killstation:]

The wind blows, through the window
At the house of a dead man
All alone, in limbo

Holdin' onto a cold hand There's still a part of me
I know I need to shut my eyes again
I know it's hard to be

The only one alone inside your head
There's still a part of me

I know I need to shut my eyes again
I know it's hard to be

The only one alone

The wind blows, through the window
At the house of a dead man
All alone, in limbo

Holdin' onto a cold hand

The wind blows, through the window
At the house of a dead man
All alone, in limbo

Holdin' onto a cold hand [XXXTENTACION:]

Drowin' in all of my regrets

All just the same in the end

Over and over again

All that we do is pretend

Drowin' in all of my regrets

All just the same in the end

Over and over again

All that we do is pretend

[Killstation:]

Lay me down, I'll start again

You're not around, I can't pretend

That I won't drown, that life won't end

I'm bleedin' out, I lost a friend

Lay me down, I'll start again

You're not around, I can't pretend

That I won't drown, that life won't end

I'm bleedin' out, I lost a friend The wind blows, through the window

At the house of a dead man

All alone, in limbo

Holdin' onto a cold hand
